

LONG SERVICE AWARDS

ROYAL NORFOLK SHOW – 24th & 25th June

Entries Close 1st May 2026. No entry fee.

The Long Service Award will be made to a person nominated by a paid member of the RNAA who has made an outstanding contribution to working in the Agri-Food sector for a period of thirty years or more.

Conditions:

- The award is given for outstanding contribution to those who work on farms and in businesses directly supporting the Agri-Food sector.
- The nomination must be made by a paid member of the RNAA, usually the employer of the individual nominated.
- One award can be given to an individual within each 10-year period of continuous employment with the acknowledgement there may be exceptional circumstances such as retirement which will be considered on an individual basis.
- The nominee and a guest will be invited to lunch at the Royal Norfolk Show. A maximum of four supporters of the nominee can purchase lunches to celebrate with the nominee, usually employers of the nominee or direct family members.

Guidance Notes:

Examples of suitable candidates:

- Those who work on family farms or within the food or countryside sectors and have done so for a sustained period of time (thirty years and more).
- Examples of previous winners include farm workers, stockmen, tractor drivers, gamekeepers, farm secretaries and foresters.

Those NOT eligible:

- Stewards: currently become Hon. VPs or Members on retirement pro-rata to their length of continuous service (the formula is one year for every five served).
- Employees of the RNAA who are recognised in other ways.
- Trade Stand holders: as they are commercial exhibitors

Successful candidates will be invited to attend the Royal Norfolk Show where awards and certificates will be presented
